

Marianne S. Wocek

Education

Staatsexamen (English and History) Hamburg University, Germany, 1973
Ph.D. Temple University (History), Philadelphia, PA, 1982

Appointments

Chancellor's Professor emeritus of History (as of 2018), IUPUI
Adjunct Professor of American Studies, Women's Studies, and University College
Director, Institute for American Thought; Senior Fellow as of 2018; IU School of Liberal Arts, IUPUI
Associate Dean, Academic Affairs, IU School of Liberal Arts, IUPUI
Director and (Senior) Editor, Santayana Edition, Institute for American Thought
Fellow of the Max Kade German-American Studies, IUPUI
Director, Curriculum to Career Choices (CtCC) SmartPathways, Institute for Evidence-Based Change
Director and Editor, Biographical Dictionary of Early Pennsylvania Legislators
Associate Editor, The Papers of William Penn

Academic Interests

American history, colonial and Revolutionary history, history of the Atlantic world 1500-1800, immigration and ethnicity, women's history, and scholarly editing

Awards

Chancellor's Professor, 2009
Alwin S. Bynum Award for Excellence in Academic Mentoring, 1996
Outstanding Academic Advisor, 1993, 1997, 2005
IU Teaching Excellence Recognition Award, 1997
National Endowment for the Humanities grants (Biographical Dictionary of Early Pennsylvania Legislators, 1986-1991; The Works of George Santayana, 2003-2011)
Senior Fulbright Scholar (Germany), 1997-1998
Outstanding Female Faculty Leader, 2003, 2004, 2013

Publications

Trade in Strangers: The Beginnings of Mass Migration to North America (Penn State University Press 1999); (editor and author) Lawmaking and Legislators in Pennsylvania, vol. 1 (University of Pennsylvania Press 1991); (editor) The Papers of William Penn vols. 3-4 (University of Pennsylvania Press 1986, 1987); numerous articles in scholarly books and journals; and (editor with others) The Letters of George Santayana, volume V in 8 books, and The Life of Reason, volume VII in 5 books, of The Works of George Santayana (MIT Press); Immigrant Entrepreneurship: German-American Business Biographies (<http://www.immigrantentrepreneurship.org>), German Historical Institute, Washington, DC.

Service

IUPUI Faculty Council (president 2014-2016); Editor, Documentary Editing, 2001-2007; Biographical Dictionary of Early Pennsylvania Legislators, Temple University, 1991-1997; Editorial Board, Yearbook of German-American Studies, 2007-; president (2009-2013) and council member, Indiana Association of Historians; president and board member, Indiana Women's History Association; IUPUI chapter president (2006-2013) and Indiana State representative, AAUP (2008-2010); co-chair, Tuning USA, history in Indiana (2009-2010); advisory board, Institute for Evidence Based Change Tuning USA/EU project (2010-2013); advisory group, American Historical Association, Tuning History project (2012-2016); history advisory group, Ulster American Folk Park, Omagh, Northern Ireland.